German Language School of Morris County's Holiday Celebration and Gift Auction to Benefit Make-A-Wish Foundation New Jersey

Morristown, NJ – (December 8, 2015) – Families from the non-profit German Language School of Morris County (<http://www.glsmc.org>), will host its annual holiday luncheon and gift auction on the campus of the Morristown Beard School, 70 Whippany Road in Morristown, NJ, Saturday December 19, 12:00 p.m. Proceeds will benefit a Morris County child facing a life-threatening illness through Make-a- Wish Foundation NJ.

“While our mission is to educate and teach German, we are also a community that is preparing our students to help make the world a better place,” notes School Board of Trustee Thorsten Rosner. “What better way to celebrate the season with helping a local ill child with our gift auction. We’ve partnered with Make-a- Wish Foundation NJ this year and are excited to help fulfill a Morris County child’s wish.”

A highlight for the school year, more than 150 students at the school will sing Christmas carols, perform the Nativity play and participate in traditional German-language holiday activities, while enjoying a pot luck luncheon. In addition to the gift auction, the community is invited to support Make-a-Wish NJ directly at: http://site.wish.org/site/TR?fr\_id=1597&pg=entry

Students travel from Northern and Central New Jersey and as far away as Eastern Pennsylvania to attend Saturday classes. Programs are tailored for all ages from toddler “Mommy and me” to K-12 classes, with the goal of preparing students to take the National German Exam, and German language proficiency tests that enable them to study at universities and technical schools in German-speaking nations.
